OVER $300 FOR HOMER CHURCH THRU MUSICAL

The Marley church was filled to capacity Sunday night at a musical sponsored by the Freeman Fellowship to benefit the building fund for the new Homer church. An inspirational program of vocal and instrumental numbers was presented. An introduction was given by James Tilley, president of the Freeman Fellowship, who also acted as master of ceremonies during the program.

Appearing on the program were folks coming from far and near who had a special feeling for the Homer people who suffered a tragic loss when their church and its contents were completely destroyed by fire, Sunday morning, March 2.

One of these folks was Mrs. Jesse Cory of Earlville, who was favored with organ selections. Mrs. Cory, the former Ada Rowley, was born in Homer and attended the Homer church for many years. Mrs. Cory also accompanied Mrs. Harold Henke of Lockport who rendered several vocal numbers. The Swanberg sisters sextet of Manhattan sang several selections during the program. Robert Burch and John Leedom of Lockport gave vocal and instrumental duets.

Daniel Sass sang a solo, "My Task" by Ashford. The "Valse Blue" by Margis was played on the piano by Alma Lauffer. Joan Gardner sang "It Is No Secret". Dr. and Mrs. Charles Faulkner of Manhattan also favored with two vocal duets. Rev. Robert Gordon, pastor of the Grace Methodist church in Joliet, favored with vocal solos. Accompanists during the program were Mrs. Edward Sproat, Miss Helen Swanberg and Mrs. Charles Faulkner.

Remarks were given by Rev. Harold Finley, pastor of the Homer church and Rev. William Bingham of the Marley church.

People were given an opportunity to give to the fund when the free will offering was taken during the service and also when refreshments were served.

Over $300 was received to benefit the new church. Symbolic of the Christian way of living was this heart-touching experience when one church community gave of their best to aid a neighboring church community in need.

Meet to Plan For Retarded Children

For the first time in the history of Illinois, an open statewide meeting of all parents groups for mentally retarded children will be held at 8:00 o'clock on Friday evening, April 4, 1952 in the Woodlawn Boys' Club, 6331 South University avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Senator Walker Butler, Republican Senator of the Thirtieth State Senatorial District, will address the group with an important message on "Legislation for the Trainable Retarded Child." Senator Butler is well-known for his vital interest in legislation for handicapped children.

The membership of the parent groups is represented in a state organization known as the Illinois Council for Mentally Retarded Children. It had its initial meeting in June 1950. Delegates from parent groups in LaGrange, Berwyn, Joliet, Aurora, Peoria, Rockford, Chicago Heights, Evanston, four in Chicago, and the Dixon State hospital Parents' association, attend meetings held quarterly during the year. Other parent groups are rapidly forming throughout the state.

A number of the local organizations are sponsoring classes. Many thousands trainable children in Illinois not now being provided for educationally, can make better social adjustment to life in their own communities through adequate training suited to their needs. The cost to the state of contributing to the maintenance of day schools for children able to profit from adequate training, as is now done for other types of handicapped children, is much less than assuming the cost of full maintenance in state residential schools.

The purposes of the Council include: Creating better facilities for all mentally retarded children; coordinating activities of the individual parent groups; stimulating research in the field of mental retardation; acting as a clearinghouse of information; and supporting legislation affecting the education of mentally retarded children.

State senators and representatives, and civic-minded persons throughout Illinois have been invited. Anyone interested in this community problem is urged to attend.

PILGRIMAGE PLAY, TECHNICOLOR MOVIE AT FRANKFORT APRIL 20

BOARD SUGGESTS MEN FOR VACANCY

At the Mokena village board meeting Tuesday night, Berle Jeedham appeared and asked the board, in behalf of the Methodist church, if they could submit altered plans for the remodeling of the church, which was granted. The board will study the plans before passing on it.

W. A. Muehler submitted rough plans for his subdivision for the board's information.

Two men were present from a bonding house and explained how bonds for the village could be handled in case such a step became necessary.

Winton Hamilton asked permission to tap on the water mains along Wolf road, which was granted. Mr. Hamilton also complained about a dog coming on his property and which has bitten several people.

Kenneth Sherwood stated he had received complaints, as a member of the village board of health, about open garbage cans standing on village property. He was instructed to ask the owners to remove them. He also stated he would have the village hall property cleaned up and would attend to the storing of the old fire equipment.

Mrs. Kenneth Sherwood requested information about preventing the parking of a car on the sidewalk in front of the bulletin board. The board stated they would request the car owner not to park there.

Fred Lehmann was present to check on a letter which he had written to the board, with suggestions to improving the village. Action on the letter was tabled until the next meeting. (We will try to publish this letter next week.)

Walter Muehler and Charles Burkhardt were present to seek information concerning water extension to an area in the north east corner of the village.

The board discussed the extension of water mains and installing of a chlorinator and the drainage of water on the north side of the village. This will be further discussed at a later date with the village attorney and engineer. Russell Anderson suggested the board look into the possibility of the board installing a sanitary sewer under their direction instead of it being handled by an engineering firm.

A report was given on those delinquent in the paying of their village vehicle tax. Attention was drawn to the law which states that all taverns must remain closed from noon until 7 p.m. during the coming school election. Plans were made to conduct a drive on speeders and other traffic violators in the village.

The board made plans to repair streets in Mokena, especially the badly in need of repair and authorized Robert Hohnstein, of the street and ally committee to spend $500 from the local vehicle tax fund for such work. Later other streets will be oil packed and improved by using the state gas tax money.

In discussing the filling of the vacancy on the board of a trustee, Village Attorney Shenk stated that the president of the board has no power to make an appointment to fill such vacancy, but sitting in session with the board, has the right to vote. He stated that any board member may suggest a name or names to be acted on by the board as a whole. Russell Anderson suggested the names of James Fasset and Berle Needham; Robert Hohnstein, Charles Burkhardt and David McMillan, suggested the name of Thomas Powers. Mr. Anderson suggested the board consider these names and be prepared to vote on them at the next meeting of the board.

the death of Mr. Schlacks in Mexico City, Mexico Tuesday. The Schlacks left two weeks ago on a three months motor trip.

Because of the unusual picture and the rare opportunity of bringing the Pilgrimage Play to this territory, the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Frankfort Methodist church is trying to reach everyone who would like to see it.

This play is the brain child of the late Mrs. Christine Wetherill Stevenson who went to California from her home in Philadelphia where she was a leader in the realm of the arts. Seeking an antidote for the hatred engendered by the awful conflict of World War I, she wanted to produce something to counteract that. Mrs. Stevenson made a trip to the Holy Lands and impressed with the similarity of the Hollywood hillside terrain and the hills of Judea where Jesus walked and performed his works for the salvation of man, she undertook, with friends interested as she was, to build an outdoor theatre in the hills. Some of the men and women actually carried stones from those California hills to build that first stage in 1916.

She brought back with her from the Holy Lands trunk loads of material, fabrics, cloth woven from camel hair, and utensils for the play. Her inspiration for the play were the words of Isaiah: "To give beauty for ashes, the oil of gladness for mourning; the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness." She made a faithful transcription of the New Testament and on June 27, 1920 the play had its premiere.

Many persons are interviewed and screened before a part in the play is assigned. Some of the best talent is given to the parts.

The Pilgrimage Play will be given in the Frankfort school gym, Sunday evening, April 20. No admission will be charged because of the nature of the play, but a free will offering will be taken to cover the expense of bringing this movie picture, in technicolor, here. It is a rare treat to be able to see this picture which was taken from the original stage play in the hills of California. This is the first year it has been seen outside of that state and original area. It is being shown in other localities throughout the nation.

M. H. Hollingsworth Candidate for State Committeeman

Morton Henry Hollingsworth (better known as Holly), a prominent Joliet businessman is seeking to be named state central committeeman for the Republican party from the 15th Congressional District. The district is composed of Boone, DeKalb, Grundy, Kendall, LaSalle and Will counties.

A staunch believer in the Republican philosophy of government, Mr. Hollingsworth said, "I want to have a part in helping the Republican party of the State of Illinois promote men and women of ability, integrity and with high standards for public service, to public office." This is the statement he made in summarizing his reason for seeking the post.

Owner and manager of the Shreeve Realty Company in Joliet, his leadership was recognized early this year when he was named to the presidency of the Joliet Association of Commerce. A Kiwanian, he is a past president of the Joliet Club and a past lieutenant governor for his division. For many years he has been a member of the official board of the Ottawa Street Methodist church and now is chairman of the board.

Always interested in young people, the community and its welfare, he has served a term on the JTHS and Junior College board of education and has been active in the Boy Scouts and the YMCA.

A precinct committeeman, he served as treasurer of the Will county Republican Central committee for several years.

Fellowship Supreme

Lesson for April 6, 1952

THE church of the twentieth century is taking a beating. We are living in one of the dark eras when the Christian church in large parts of the world is on the retreat. One-sixth of the earth's surface, that used to be called "Christian," is now dominated by anti-religious powers.

There were once 8,000 missionaries in China where now there are 200, and the number is growing fewer still. An inquiring minister in Georgia recently asked a number of American church leaders whether they thought we can call the United States a "Christian" nation. Most of them said No, and most of them thought that America is at present slipping farther away from Christ.

What Did the Early Church Have That We Haven't?

NOW the question is: What did the early church have that we don't have? Why did they succeed where we have not been succeeding?

One quality which was strong in the early church, weak today, is fellowship. Let us first see what the New Testament idea of fellowship is not. It is not organization. It was not any one Big Man or Big Church or any pattern of organization that made the early church "click." Also, it was not simple nearness.

For many persons today, "belonging to the same church" with another person means no more than that on occasional Sundays they find themselves sitting within a few yards of each other. They do not know each other's names, perhaps, much less take any personal interest in each other's affairs.

Furthermore, the New Testament does not hold up subscription to a creed as the main feature of fellowship. All mathematics teachers believe in the truth of algebra and geometry, but that does not make a fellowship out of mathematics teachers. So you can have several hundred or several thousand people repeating the same Creed without ever being a fellowship or even knowing what the word means.

No Tinker-Toy Business

ONE thing that fellowship did mean, when it meant something, Jesus made very plain. It is like the life of a growing vine. You cannot think of the branches without the vine, nor of the vine without the branches.

Carrying on the same idea, Paul (1 Cor. 12) speaks of the church as the "body" of Christ. Christian fellowship is first of all an intimate growing-in to the life of Christ, sharing the same life with him.

You can make a tinker-toy man with two arms or no arms, you can pull the legs and arms out and stick them in again as you like, because the tinker-toy man is not real, it is only blocks and sticks. But you cannot stick branches in and pull them out of a vine like that; much less pull legs and arms out of a living body.

If the church today is weak, it is because too many individual "members" are not members of Christ. They belong to the church, statistically speaking; but they do not belong to Christ.

Belonging to One Another

ANOTHER thing that fellowship means, grows out of this first thing. The New Testament idea—the New Testament fact—is that all Christians are parts of one another, just as all parts of a living thing belong to one another.

It is quite true that not every one in the church then understood this, or Jesus and Paul would not have had to speak and write as they did. But the church at large did understand it. Every church then was a kind of family, indeed often a much better family than that into which its members had first been born.

Although each Christian was himself, indeed a new self ("If any man is in Christ, he is a new creation," Paul said), yet in the church every one belonged to every one else, just as in a good family. The good of one was the happiness of all; the sorrow and trouble of one was the trouble of all; the temptation of one gave the others an opportunity to fight for his rescue.

The church, when it is the church, is the fellowship supreme, the united life, the life of God shared by those who love him and one another.

Perhaps the best thing the Christian church today could do, instead of getting more "members" who are not members, would be to re-discover and re-practice New Testament fellowship. Such a church would begin to win victories again.

How To Spot A Communist by Wheeler McMillen, Editor-in-Chief
Pathfinder News Magazine

You can't identify a Communist by his looks, and a fellow-traveler wears no badge. Then, as W. Alton Jones recently remarked, one can not always identify "communism dressed up in American clothes."

Mr. Jones was addressing a business meeting of oil men in Texas. He is president of the Cities Service Co. and chairman of the board of the American Petroleum Institute. No doubt his audience expected him to talk about oil. But he thought he had—and he did have—something even more important. "Communism is as communism does," was his topic. These excerpts from his text are well worth reading:

What were the chief characteristics of the nations with which we went to war on the grounds that their policies and practices were inimical to the well-being of the United States? Suppose we list the characteristics of our enemy countries in the years just preceding the war... We find, first Excessive borrowings, and a huge national debt. Unbalanced budgets, and deficits piled upon deficits. Confiscatory taxation. Extravagant public works. Subsidies to various groups of citizens.

Remember these are the characteristics of the totalitarian governments with which we went to war. To detect or identify a Communist maybe we should ask the question, "Do you approve of excessive borrowings, of a huge national debt of deficit financing, or budgets unbalanced, of extravagant public works and of Government subsidies?"

To carry on, here are other characteristics: Concentration of powers in the Chief Executive. Sapping the independence of the courts.

Administrative law, that is, regulation by men rather than written statutes, and government by decree.

A planned economy. A greatly enlarged bureaucracy... To go on, we find Private investments restricted. The individual denied the freedom to own gold.

Subversive forces encouraged. Class conflicts stimulated. Thousands of publicity experts to carry out the Government's program of indoctrination.

Encroachment upon freedom of the press ending in complete control.

Attacks upon industry which destroyed its morale, and created antagonisms, on the part of consumer and worker.

Then there is a fourth category which deals with military activities... I am informed that the Welfare State inevitably moves into the Warfare State... Here then is the fourth and last category of totalitarian characteristics:

War scares—as Shakespeare put it, "foreign quarrels to busy giddy minds." Conscription of men for military duty.

Huge military preparation. Regimentation in the name of war, of industry of farming of labor.

Does anyone recognize a deadly parallel?

Some of those who honestly believe that they are not Communists, nor fellow-travelers, either do not recognize the works of communism or are deceiving themselves. Practically every one of the characteristics I have listed is to be found in greater or lesser degree in the United States...

The citizen should be vigilant. He should awake to the reality that if he is to survive as a free man he must assume the responsibilities of a free man.

He is the custodian of his own destiny.

ROWE AIMS FOR PLAIN DECENTY IN GOVERNMENT

Richard Yates Rowe, republican candidate for the office of Governor of the State of Illinois, recently outlined his plans for decency in government before the voters of Will county at a reception held in his honor at the Hotel Louis Joliet.

A return to plain decency in government, solid philosophy of government and to the faith and creed of our forefathers, establishment of morale among the people; getting the federal government out of the red and the Reds out of the government. These are the simple plans advocated by Richard Yates Rowe.

Here are some of the principals from a statement by Rowe made recently:

"I believe that what I have done is more important than what I say... Past performance in Public office is better than Promises.

"Economy and efficiency in government: We have too much 'Big' Government; The Government is telling too many people what they must do, and doing too much for people who can do for themselves. What we need is better government, and less government, at a lower cost. We can have better government in Illinois for less money. The best government is the one that governs least."

"Stop the trend toward Centralization and Socialization in Springfield. Bring back to Illinois many things Washington D. C. is trying to regulate. Regain State Sovereignty, return local home rule to the people. Government is closest to the people in the county, city and township where the people can watch it and change it if they don't like it. Government is best when it is closest to the people."

"Less government in business—more business methods in government. In America, government is based on the dignity and supremacy of the individual. Government can be bigger than any of the players on the field as a referee, but it has no right to become one of the players. The function of government is to give equality of opportunity. Government in the State is now pyramiding payrolls, waste, and overlapping functions. Government should only govern—and has no right to compete with private enterprise. Government must be the servant, and not the master of the people."

"By strict attention to the people's business, I have given value in service, and tried to dignify every office I have held. I believe I will serve my party best by serving the people of Illinois best. Government is a trust—created for the benefit of the people. Good politics is good government. I want to be a Public Servant—a servant of all the people. I pledge you that very act of mine will be determined by one principal above all others, Is it good for the people of Illinois?"

Congressman Mason Candidate For Re-Election 15th Dist.

It is rather old-fashioned to speak of those whom voters elect to public office as servants of the people, but in the case of Congressman Noah Mason, that does not hold true.

Congressman Mason truly is a servant of the people and has been a hard fighter for good Americanism for the past 15 years, since he has held this

A number of Will County weekly newspapermen met with Richard Yates Rowe, Republican candidate for Governor, when he appeared at a luncheon in Joliet last Saturday. Mr. Rowe is also a weekly newspaper publisher, publishing three downstate weekly newspapers.

EXPLOPER SCOUT GIVEN MEDAL

Explorer Scout Earl Gillespie, Jr. of Kankakee has been awarded the gold medal for life saving by the National Court of Honor of the Boy Scouts of America. The citation reads as follows: "Earl Gillespie, Jr., age 15, First Class Scout of Troop 106, Kankakee, Illinois, sponsored by the St. Rose Parish Catholic church, saved John Zirkle, age 9, from drowning. The accident occurred on June 4, 1949. John and his brother were swimming in the Onarga Creek when they got out too far and slipped into nine feet of water. The brother got safely to shore, but John went down. His father went to his rescue, but was unsuccessful. Then Earl dived in, recovered the boy from the bottom, brought him to shore, and helped John's father give artificial respiration."

At the time of the rescue, Earl was a member of the Boy Scout Troop 106. Since then, he has reached explorer scout age and has transferred to Explorer Post 106 of St. Rose of Lima Catholic church. Loyd Cloutier is his Explorer Advisor. Earl is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gillespie, Sr., of 196 S. Washington street, Kankakee, Ill. He attended St. Rose School for eight years and is now a senior at St. Patrick's High school. He has expressed a desire to study forestry in college.

Earl became a cub scout in Pack 106 of St. Rose Church at the age of nine and continued through all the ranks of cubbing to the highest rank of Webelos. At twelve he entered the boy scouts in Troop 106 and became a first class scout. He held leadership positions as patrol leader, cub scout den chief, and junior assistant scoutmaster. He is now serving as secretary of his explorer post. He has attained the rank of star scout and has earned merit badges in angling, dog care, home repairs, swimming, bird study, and civics. He is also a member of the Order of the Arrow, a national society of honor campers.

Only a very limited number of gold honor medals are granted by the Boy Scouts of America each year to scouts who have demonstrated unusual heroism and skill in attempting to save lives at the risk of their own.

The rescued boy's father, Clyde Zirkle of R. 2, Onarga, wrote to Earl's scoutmaster, Charles Lockwood following the rescue. In his letter he said "If it hadn't been for Earl, my boy would have drowned."

The medal of honor and the accompanying certificate will be presented at the Annual Scouters' Banquet to be held at the Civic Auditorium in Kankakee, Thursday evening, April 3.

R. M. Laux Candid'te For Representative For 41st District

Richard M. Laux, Republican candidate for the office of State Representative is making a very serious campaign, letting the people know what the real issues are.

While constantly stressing the issues of high taxes, wasteful spending, deplorable road conditions and other issues; he states there is a far greater and more serious issue, one of the most critical since the days preceding the Civil War, and that issue is

"Slavery under Aesthetic Communism and the Criminal Elements."

This devilish group is allied together, and if they ever get control of our government there will be little opportunity for us to discuss other issues, once we are their slaves. To a slave, liberty is the shining issue of importance, and so let it be to us also—before we become slaves.

With all the bravery and devotion of a good soldier we on the political front must be willing to sacrifice all that we own and if needs be our own lives, for the same ideals and principles that our fore fathers had, and upon which this country was founded and for whom so many have shed their precious blood.

Mr. Laux is a lifelong resident of Addison where he lives with his wife and 5 children. A graduate of York High of Elmhurst and the American Institute of Banking of Chicago, a businessman for over 20 years.

SALVATION ARMY TO HOLD 5-DAY CONGRESS

One of the world's great spiritual and administrative leaders, General Albert Osborn of The Salvation Army, will arrive in Chicago April 5 for a five-day congress with officers of the 11-state central territory. The visit of General and Mrs.

Osborn, their third in the United States since World War II, will provide a special highlight of The Salvation Army's observance of Holy Week.

At the first public event after his arrival in Chicago Saturday morning, General Osborn will review 1,000 uniformed Salvation Army officers and soldiers and three Salvation Army bands following their parade down State street from Wacker drive to Quincy street. After the review, General Osborn will speak at an open air rally in Quincy street between State and Dearborn streets.

General Osborn will discuss the international situation as he has found it on his recent world tour at the civic welcome to be held Sunday, April 6 at 3 p.m. in the Civic Opera house. Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson and the consuls of more than 15 countries where The Salvation Army is active will be among the officials attending the reception.

Three religious meetings to be held at Austin High school, 231 N. Pine ave., will also be open to the public. They are the Salvationists' rally at 8 p.m. Saturday, and two meetings Sunday, at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m.

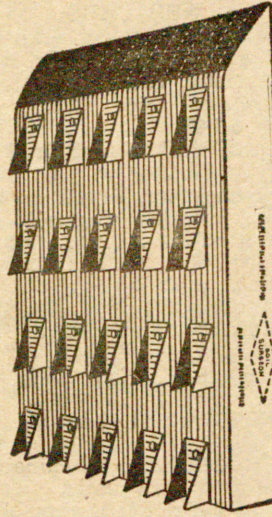

Four officers' councils and a special council for women officers will be held Monday and Tuesday, April 7 and 8, in connection with the Territorial congress. Mrs. Osborn will address women officers in St. James Episcopal church, Wabash and Huron streets, 2:30 p.m. Monday.

Commissioner Ernest I. Pugmire, national commander of The Salvation Army, will hold the first of the councils for both men and women officers in the Eighth Street theater Monday at 7 p.m. General and Mrs. Osborn will conduct officers' councils Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. in the Eighth Street theatre.

Before leaving Chicago Wednesday, April 9, General and Mrs. Osborn will be guests of the Converts' Club at 5 p.m. dinner at Harbor Light center, 654 W. Madison St.

WEIGHT
WHERE IT COUNTS
for BETTER DISKING
in TOUGH CONDITIONS

The JOHN DEERE
Model "KB"
DISK HARROW

Hard-baked stubble, stubborn stalks, and heavy trash meet their master when you enter the field with a John Deere "KB" Heavy-Duty Disk Harrow. The husky Model "KB" makes short work of the toughest disk-ing jobs because proper weight distribution of the heavy-duty frame holds the gangs to their work and assures good, uniform penetration.

Ample clearance prevents clogging even in trashy conditions. Frame connections provide flexibility for even penetration over the full width of the harrow—on turns or on the straightaway. Heat-treated disk blades hold their keen cutting edge longer. Gangs run on extremely hard, friction-reducing bearings. Ask us about a Model "KB"—there's a size to fit your farm.

when you have Automatic Laundry Appliances!

You'll forget what "blue Monday" means... when you have automatic appliances to take the work out of washday! Then, you'll just toss clothes into the washer... and they'll be sudsed clean, rinsed, and spun. When the washer automatically turns itself off, you'll simply put the clothes into the dryer... where they'll fluff-dry automatically! And all that's left is sit-down ironing... finished in no time at all!

You see, no more up-to-your-elbows in hot water... no more lifting heavy, steaming clothes. And you won't have to worry about "good drying" weather... you'll just be a step away from the sunshine in your dryer. Best of all, you can wash any hour of the day or night you like... and never, never have that "blue Monday" feeling when you've finished!

Good Local Men As Candidates For Co., School Trustees

At the primary election on April 8 citizens will be asked to vote into being a county board of seven men as school trustees.

As explained last week, this is newly adopted state law for each county to name its board. It will be a separate ballot from the regular Republican and Democratic ballots.

Although the duties of this board are limited at this time, it may become an important agency in our county school system when school boundary is a question, and local representation is always a great asset.

In this eastern part of Will county there are four candidates.

We mentioned last week the two in New Lenox, Melvin Whitaker and Harold L. Patterson, but we would like to draw attention to two other highly capable men from this area. They are G. Lee Russell, Peotone publisher of the Peotone Vedette and Nelson E. Helme of Crete. Both these men have a splendid reputation in their territory for practical business judgement.

Mr. Helme is a retired banker and school official.

Local Fossils Old? 350 Million Years

Probably the last scientific trip through the old stone quarry north of Lemont, once worked by the Great Lakes D. & D.

Co. was made two weeks ago by the JTHS Biology club in search of animal fossils. The machinery is now being salvaged and within two weeks the pumps will be removed, allowing the quarry to fill with water. Mr. Charles Schoenknecht, biology teacher, led the group to this Silurian limestone section, where club members collected enough specimens to give a fair cross-section of sea life about 350 million years old, when the whole midwest was a vast sea.

The find of the day was the head of a huge trilobites (shelled arthropod, ancestor of the modern lobster) which measures two inches across and has a clear impression of every detail. The club president, Wilbur Rauch, discovered this valuable specimen; other finds were sea-lillies, molluscs, clams and corals.

Mokena students on the trip were Phyllis and Marcia Gaddis, Jerry Lehmann, Donny Lehmann and Delbert Smiel, and Bob Yunker, of Tinley Park. These junior geologists claim that Joliet is the center of the greatest fossil deposits on this continent

F. W. Woodruff of Joliet Candidate For GOP Convention

The importance of the Republican voters of the 15th Congressional district voting for their choice as delegates and alternates to the Republican National convention has been stressed by F. W. Woodruff of Joliet, who is a candidate for delegate from this district.

The delegates to both the Republican and the Democratic National conventions, which will be held in Chicago in July, will be elected at the primary election on Tuesday, April 8.

Mr. Woodruff pointed out that only by voting for their choice for delegates to the national conventions will the voter have a voice in the selection of the candidates of his party for the presidency and the vice-presidency.

"I cannot too strongly urge everyone to go to the polls on April 8 to select, not only your candidates for state and local offices but also to elect your delegates and alternates to the national conventions. Thus, you will insure that you will have a voice in the selection of candidates for important national offices."

Mr. Woodruff, who is chairman of the Board of the First National Bank of Joliet, has long been interested in civic affairs and stated that he was a candidate for delegate because he believed that every citizen should take an interest in the selection of candidates for national offices.

Many Workers Active in Behalf of W. O. Herschbach

In the final hours of the primary election campaign, some 80 volunteer workers from all sections of the county and all walks of life, are making a dramatic last-minute appeal for votes in behalf of Walter O. Herschbach, candidate for the GOP nomination for State's Attorney for Will county.

These volunteers, who are heartily interested in the welfare of the community are going from door to door in the county asking people interested in good government and fair play to join the ranks of the Herschbach supporters. "Herschbach is the best qualified for the all-important role of State's Attorney" they stress.

The only veteran of World War II in the State's Attorney race, the native of Frankfort is seeking the nomination on his record of service and his principles. For 15 years he has practiced law in the county. But always he has taken time out to aid those less fortunate and to help meet Community Chest, Red Cross and other civic goals. In the service of his country during World War II, he was in the Southwest Pacific with the Navy for 15 months.

This is Herschbach's first attempt for an elective public office. In the Republican party, he long has been a loyal worker.

In the closing hours of the campaign, his workers again and again are emphasizing that Sheriff Ernest E. Overbey has termed Herschbach vital to his law-enforcement program in the county. Overbey, the arch-enemy of crime and the syndicate, is working actively for Herschbach's nomination. Overbey feels the nomination is a "must" for the good of the community.

Before voters go to the polls on April 8, the Herschbach backers are asking that every man and woman consider Herschbach's program that was outlined at the start of the campaign and on which he has followed through and intends to carry out if elected. The program on which the 41 year old candidate has based his candidacy is simple and clear-cut: On the job; Public service above self; a positive law enforcement policy known to all; vigorous prosecutions tempered with true human value and understanding; Co-operation with all who believe in the principle in government: A closed door for crooks; an open door for law abiding citizens; Christian doctrines as a foundation or all work.

Positive Roto Valves in Massey-Harris tractors consist of a series of coil springs and ball bearings enclosed in a collar and retainer cap assembly on the valve stem. Each time the valve opens, pressure on the bearings causes them to roll, forcing the entire valve to turn. Valves are constantly rotating... eliminating carbon build-up and distortion of the valve seats and stems. The result is equalized wear... clean, tight-fitting valves... and peak engine efficiency with greater power output per gallon regardless of the quality of fuel.

Mokena School News

FIRST GRADE

First graders have done two very interesting art projects this spring. Each child made a hyacinth plant using crepe paper and construction paper. These make an attractive spring border above our lockers. On our lockers we have mounted woodpeckers which slide up and down on tree trunks. This was fun.

Our weather chart for March is nearly completed. Each child took part in this. They did very well cutting out six pointed snowflakes when it snowed, umbrellas when it rained and a big round sun each time we had sunshine.

Most of us have made posters showing a good breakfast. This was part of our science.

We like the stories in our reader, "Our New Friends". They are true to life. Many of us can read without much help. We find out the meaning of new words because we use phonetic clues, initial consonant sounds, context clues and many other methods we have learned so that we can help ourselves.

In Arithmetic we can write the numbers to 100. We can tell time because we have learned to count by 5's. We can count nickels, dimes and pennies because we know our tens, fives and ones.—Minnie L. Pester, teacher.

Second Grade

We have been studying about frogs, toads, salamanders, and crayfish in our science class. We hope to have some real live specimens brought to school before too long. We have drawn and cut out pictures of these animals.

We have learned how to write all the small letters of the alphabet, and now we are beginning to write the capital letters. Every day we practice writing the spelling words, but when we have the test each week, we still use manuscript printing. Soon we shall be able to write every word we use like grown-ups.

Mark Muehler brought a coconut to show us at our "Show and Tell" time. It had been given to him by Mrs. Dunham who recently returned from Florida. Many members of the class had never seen a coconut in the shell. Mark also showed it to the pupils in the first and third grade rooms. When Mark opens the coconut he promises to bring the outside shell back to school so the class can see how thick it is.

Grades Three and Four

When "Rascal," our pet turtle was missing from his pan when we arrived at school one morning, the children were quite excited and immediately started searching for him. After a reasonably short search Bonnie Bruce discovered that he was hiding in a paper bag way down at the end of the shelf area upon which his pan was sitting. After he had escaped another time or two we placed wire screen over his home so that he can't get out. We were fearing that he might fall to the floor and crack his shell and we'd have no more "Rascal" for a pet.

Mounting of cotton, silk, wool, linen, nylon, rayon and rubber materials by the boys and girls of Third Grade has been of much interest for most of the children. Seeing that so many types of materials can be made from these products has been a surprise to us. We like our bulletin board exhibit of these mountings. Susan Perry's aunt sent her a very interesting book containing samples of many materials and showing in pictures the processes by which rayon and nylon are made. We appreciate Susan's sharing this book with us.

Posters showing some of the by-products of coal have been made by some of the children. It is very interesting and almost unbelievable that so many things can be made from coal.

Fourth Grade boys and girls have made posters showing their increased understanding of fractions. Also in Fourth Grade Arithmetic we are spending considerable time learning the multiplication and division facts. Each child is endeavoring to improve his own record in speed and accuracy on daily tests of these facts. Third Grade has had similar tests of the addition facts and we plan to include the subtraction facts. We wish to develop both speed and accuracy in the knowing of these facts.—Mary Joy Leedom, teacher.

4th-5th Grade

Our room enjoyed the "Orchestra" magician show; Anthony Dina and Phyllis Hacker were chosen to participate in one of the tricks.

We have completed our 3d quarterly examinations and have started on our last quarter work.

We wish to thank Tommy Williams for bringing a large United States map put out by the Texaco Co. We have it on our board in the back of the room.

Recently Margaret Jones cleverly arranged and executed a "home talent" program presented before our room.

Phyllis Hacker has been appointed custodian of the girls athletic equipment. Fred Kieslar has charge of the Volley Ball and Lee Yunker has custody of all soft ball supplies for the boys.—Mrs. Wheelley, teacher.

6th Grade

The following pupils have fifteen or more perfect spelling units: Henry Barnett, Kathryn Cooper, Teddy Dunham, Tommy Dunham, Carol Hohenstein, Donald Lehmann, Linda Sue Powers, Gladys Rinke, Penny Spiewak.

Linda Sue Powers has completed four of the required Reading Circle books. Three books have been completed by Donald Lehmann, Carol Hohenstein, Teddy Dunham, Richard DeForest and Galdys Rinke. The following have completed one book: Leonard Senglin, Barbara Duer, Susan Benson, Sheila Bennett and Penny Spiewak.

We have completed plans for our annual field trip. We plan to go to the Museum of Science and Industry and to see the play "Puss in Boots" at the Goodman Children's Theater.
